

EMAIL FROM BRO. BASIL OPIYO

Dear saints, we are very grateful for the little that God gave you and you entrusted us to use to fulfill His purpose of translations of the message of the hour. God bless you all.

We acquired all the necessary equipment that can greatly enhance the flow of the work regardless of any hydro electrical challenge.

We the three translators on behalf of the Acholi saints send sincere thanks to the entire administration of Cedar Hills Church of The Cross for their generosity in responding to the cry for dire needs timely. May the God of peace defeat His foes before you forever.

Thanks for loving us this far, after a long time of war and distress on our land for more than two decades. We feel your real love for us. We deeply thank God of Elijah for directing you to our land. Thanks to the founding pastor, mission bearers and all collaborating churches for this evening time evangelism. Receive our appreciations and greetings. God bless you.

We really thank the Lord for His great divine plan who made it possible to have this the very first of its kind video conferencing where the Word of the Lord was divided so rightly before the ministers that the Lord Jesus Christ has just called out.

God bless you all!

I would like to thank the Lord for healing my arm this past month. I was jumping on the trampoline with Ruby and I hurt my arm. I didn't want to complain as soon as it happened and so I just put a warm towel on my arm that helped with the pain. Soon the pain got worse and my arm was double its size and it was dark purple at this point. I finally told my dad and he prayed for my arm. After this I got in the car and they drove me to the urgent care. I was worried that I wasn't going to be able to play my ukulele in church. Playing in church brought me much joy and so I began to cry thinking that I wouldn't be able to play. They put me in a sling and I was sent home. While the healing process was taking place, I refused to stop playing in church and so I kept playing. It was hard but I thank the lord for comforting me and for healing my arm. I know that many times we take things for granted and I know that I am very thankful for my healed arm. I pray this testimony can bless someone.

Dear youth friends, I love you all very much ! I know it's hard to be a Christian, truth is that it's not easy. It isn't easy putting on a uniform and going into battle. I struggle daily, my mind is a war zone. Satan is always telling me that I'm "not worth it" and I'm "imperfect". But I'm here as your brother to tell you that the devil is a LIAR! You are worth 10 million worlds, you are worth all the pain our Lord Jesus Christ took, you are worth so much that he died on the cross for you ! He took it all for you. It was his love that he gave to you. And from the outside we probably don't look perfect, but if you accept the Lord Jesus Christ as your personal savior , you ARE PERFECT! Let Him be perfect for you. Don't let the enemy discourage you. You're children of God and you're my brothers and sisters. Love you all, God bless you !
