KEEPING THE VOICE OF ELIJAH ALIVE

Dear Beloved Brother Caleb,
 Christian greetings to you in the precious name of our Lord Jesus Christ who is the Alpha and Omega the first and the last. Since I met you here in Uganda you have been in my prayers and heart. We are blessed people to know that our names are in the Lamb's book of life and that we are redeemed by his precious blood. I really do appreciate the Love that you have for the Lord and his bride that you were able to leave your home and loved ones and come to minister unto us. May God richly bless all your efforts to serve Him as you serve his bride.

I--I just don't know how to say it. I--I... It's just something about missionary that I just--it just... I just love it. And I just know that what you're doing... You're doing God's will when you give to missions. That is right. And you know, when... I believe that every Christian is obligated to be a missionary. I believe every Christian is obligated. Now, not so much as you have to go over in the old countries and preach or something. But if you can't go, you can help send somebody else. You see? See? What you do to send somebody else... It's not fair that one person hear the Gospel twice, when somebody hasn't heard it once. See? Everybody should hear the Gospel at least once. And I--I want to do my part to try to take the Gospel to everybody that I know how, every place.

Thank you for demonstrating Ephesians 4:1-16 before our eyes perfecting the saints and teaching ministers to fulfill the call of God in their lives, by loving one another and honoring one another in the fear of the Lord. Thank you for sharing to us that its not one man's ministry now but a many membered bride body ministry under the Joshua anointing which encourages teamwork. Thank you for all the material that you gave us, May God reward you and all that have put a hand to it. Please pass my love and well wishes to the saints that God has put under your care to feed them with the Eagle food especially all the brothers that traveled with you to Africa. And also a special thank you to your Dad who has brought you up in the fear of the Lord: taught you to love God and to serve Him. We are remembering him in prayer that the Lord may restore him to perfect health in the name of Jesus Christ. May God increase his grace, joy and peace upon your life and bless you with unending happiness and fulfillment in Him. Let Christ's love be manifest as you share your with family especially your granddaughter, church and all the saints this Christmas season. Merry Christmas! May the new year give you rapturing grace and faith in its fullness as we prepare to go and meet our Lord in the air.

Yours in Christ,

ISAIAH 64:8

But now, O Lord, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand.

I would like to thank my Lord Jesus Christ for the opportunity to be able to accompany our pastor and the men who went to Africa. To be able to get more of an understanding of how much hunger our brethren in Africa have for the Word of God has been such a humbling experience. So many things that are a common thing in everyday life, I have taken for granted. The African brethren praise God for the smallest things and their worship is truly out of this world. It feels as though they have a key to God's door and can call upon him to come down at anytime through their worship. There is such a great work that is being done in Africa and I believe with all my soul that each one of us has a part to do. God doesn't only have a perfect plan, but HE is the perfect plan, and as the body of Christ continues to come together even more then we will see the works become even greater. Thank you and God Bless you.

Corinthians 2:9

But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

God Bless each one of you! It's been a privilege to be identified with such wonderful brothers and sisters in Christ! I want to tell you that; it may not seem like there is a lot taking place right now in the physical but, there is so much going on in the spiritual realm. If we could only open our eyes to see what's happening right before us! It's a tremendous time, it's a time where the bride is realizing who she is and is being called out! I know each day we get caught up in our lives, our children, our problems in life and our jobs. Those are just the battles we must overcome as human beings. I find myself always wanting the next big thing on store shelves, and always wanting materialistic objects that don't even matter in the big scheme of things. Instead of taking the time to be thankful for what's been allotted to me already. I thank God since taking this trip to Uganda; I have realized that it's the small things in life that I need to get better at and be thankful for. I never want my life to become just a formality or a boring routine! I want a revival in my heart to be stirring every day in my soul and in my home. I desire a closer walk with the Lord. To ME there is nothing more important right now then being sure I got ahold of the word of God and having what I claim to have! That's what matters most in my life. We can't afford to miss the coming of the Lord! There is nothing greater! The next greatest event to ever hit this earth is Christ coming for his Bride. After getting a glimpse of the Bride in Africa and the love I was exposed to, I simply want to do all that I can to serve my Lord! I pray you continue to serve Him with all your heart, strength and mind!

Your brother,

Aaron Esquibel

As i reflect on our trip, I am left with no words to say but "wow" God is Great. I see Him doing incredible things for His bride in Africa. May we all continue to pray for our brethren there, and for the work the Lord is doing there. I learned so many things. One being how privileged we are to have this message and to have it in our language, where many places are very limited because of the language barrier. I also saw how powerful this message is. One track of Bro. Branham won 350 souls and still counting as there are many more being won for Christ. May we not take for granted this powerful message we have in our hands, that the world is dying for. I'd like to thank the church for all your prayers during this trip. They were felt everywhere we went. It was as if all of you were right there with us. God Bless You.
